

HOT REBELLION AGAINST GOVT IN VENEZUELA

CARACAS, Venezuela, April 10.—In the very heart of the Venezuelan capital, Miraflores palace, home of the president, a battalion of federal troops took up arms in the dark hours of Saturday morning.

The mutineers were headed by Captain Rafael Alvarez and a lieutenant.

At the moment of the rising, Capt. Martin Gonzalez, who remained loyal, was killed, and Colonel Adolfo Arce, sub-commandant of the garrison, who had opposed the traitors, was mortally wounded.

Infant Barracks
The mutinous soldiers then proceeded to the San Carlos barracks in the northern section of the city, for the purpose of seizing large quantities of arms and munitions stored there.

The mutineers, who were accompanied by students, took the barracks by storm, and the federal forces were met with a rifle fusillade, several of them being killed and others wounded. The local federal forces took numerous prisoners and inflicted a decisive defeat on the mutineers.

President Gomez, who believes that the prompt action of the government would end the affair, ordered that the details of the revolt should be made public.

Since early in February there have been student riots on various occasions, but the latest casualties have never been announced.

SAYS CANADA LACKS IN ART

TORONTO, April 10.—That the great Canadian novel has not yet been written, that there is a dearth of a creative effort in music and that Canadian drama has still to come to some assertion made by Fred Landon, M. A. of the University of Western Ontario, when addressing the opening session of the Ontario Library association here Monday.

He commended the work being accomplished in children's libraries, and found satisfaction in the literary movement.

Dr. George H. Locke of Toronto stated that the British Library association, the assistant librarians association, the special library association and the association of county libraries were likely to form a federation and occupy a house in London, which will be the centre of literary activity for the United Kingdom.

The federation should become still greater and embrace the other islands of the empire was the suggestion of the speaker.

Lethbridge Man, R. Flewing, Found Shot

LETHBRIDGE, Alta., April 10.—The body of Robert Flewing, a local manufacturing jeweler, was found Monday afternoon in his room with a discharged revolver at his side. He was a native of Aberdeen, Scotland.

AT FANTASIES
"Two Girls Wanted" the play in the Pantages Theatre is a masterpiece of the modern drama. The play is from the pen of Gladys Tabor, who has more than 100 genuine successes to her credit. In the Pantages Theatre, the play is being presented in a new and original manner, and has given the stage a real modern, breaking new romance and backed by a vast throng of tragedy, it is just sufficient to provide a contrast to the light moments.

The story tells of two girls from small towns who are hitch-hiked into the business world of New York. They find that the pace of Wall Street is just as fast for them to answer an advertisement in a paper, where "two girls are wanted" for domestic service as a country maid and housekeeper. They are taken on and soon come in contact with a country maid who is a real girl. Many complications ensue, but in the end, the girls are able to break through the walls of the city and return to their homes.

AT THE EMPRESS
Harold Lloyd has done it again. The best of comedies, which he can get in and out of more hot spots than any other half dozen people, in his latest picture, "Speedy," has given the screen one of the most complete and complete picture ever. It is a comedy which is full of fun and games. It is a comedy which is full of fun and games. It is a comedy which is full of fun and games.

AT THE CAPITOL
The Capitol Theatre management for the last three days of the week is presenting real entertainment with each part of the show. A real feature is the play "The Girl in the Red Dress," which is a little bit of a story built around a girl who is suffering from imaginary life and continually suffers from imaginary life.

New York Yankees Are Odds-on Favorites to Win American League Pennant

BUT THERE ARE NO FAVORITES IN THE NATIONAL LEAGUE

Seven Out of Eight Clubs Figure to Have Chance at Flag—Phillies Are Only Team Not Given Place in Fight

By ALAN J. GOULD
(Associated Press Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, April 10.—The New York Yankees are the odds-on favorites in the American league race that has an advance and solitary starting today in the Phillies' capitol, but it is a great season for long shots in the National league drive.

Seven of the eight clubs in the elder circuit will have at least a voice in the debate even if all are not easily able to carry the argument into the final stages of the campaign. Only the Phillies are disowned from calculations that promise the largest and most exciting National league scramble in years.
